1. Summary of Gender Pay Data

The mean gender pay gap:- 2.68 %

The median gender pay gap:- 3.70 %

The mean gender bonus gap:- 56.94 %

The median gender bonus gap:- 22.25 %

The proportion of male employees receiving a bonus:- 2.73 %

The proportion of female employees receiving a bonus:- 4.27 %

The Pay Quartiles:-

Band	Male	Female
A	38.35 %	61.65 %
B	26.32 %	73.68 %
C	33.58 %	66.42 %
D	38.81 %	61.19 %

2. Gender Pay Data

- 1.) The difference between the mean hourly rate of pay of male full-pay relevant employees and that of female full-pay relevant employees;

In order to calculate this, the Company has calculated the hourly rate for all full-pay relevant employees and has then calculated the mean hourly rate of pay for males and females.

The mean is the sum of all of the values in a list divided by the number of values.

Formula:-

$$\frac{\text{Male mean hourly rate for full-pay relevant employees} - \text{Female mean hourly rate for full-pay relevant employees}}{\text{Male mean hourly rate for full-pay relevant employees}} \times 100$$

2.68 %

2.) The difference between the median hourly rate of pay of male full-pay relevant employees and that of female full-pay relevant employees;

As with one above, the Company has calculated the hourly rate for all full-pay relevant employees but it has then calculated the median hourly rate of pay for males and females.

The median is the middle value in a list where the values are listed in numerical order from lowest value to highest value.

Formula:-

$$\frac{\text{Male median hourly rate for full-pay relevant employees} - \text{Female median hourly rate for full-pay relevant employees}}{\text{Male median hourly rate for full-pay relevant employees}} \times 100$$

3.70 %

3.) The difference between the mean bonus pay paid to relevant male employees and that of female relevant employees

To calculate the mean bonus pay for relevant employees, the Company has taken the sum of all bonus payments paid to its relevant employees over the course of the 12 month period ending on 5th April 2017 ("relevant bonus period"). The Company has then calculated the mean bonus payments made to its relevant male employees and that of its female employees.

Formula:-

$$\frac{\text{Male mean bonus pay for relevant employees} - \text{Female mean bonus pay for relevant employees}}{\text{Male mean bonus pay for relevant employees}} \times 100$$

56.94 %

4.) The difference between the median bonus pay paid to relevant male employees and that of female relevant employees

As with 3 above, only calculating the median bonus payments made to its relevant male employees and that of its female employees.

Formula:-

$$\frac{\text{Male median bonus pay for relevant employees} - \text{Female median bonus pay for relevant employees}}{\text{Male median bonus pay for relevant employees}} \times 100$$

22.25 %

5.) The proportions of male and female relevant employees who were paid a bonus during the relevant bonus period;

In order to calculate the proportion of male and female relevant employees who have received a bonus in the relevant bonus period, the company has taken a list of all of the male relevant employees and the female relevant employees who have been paid a bonus in the relevant bonus period and expressed those figures as a percentage.

$$\frac{\text{Number of relevant male employees who were paid a bonus in the relevant bonus year}}{\text{Number of relevant male employees}} \times 100$$

2.73 %

$$\frac{\text{Number of relevant female employees who were paid a bonus in the relevant bonus year}}{\text{Number of relevant female employees}} \times 100$$

4.27 %

6.) The proportions of male and female full-pay relevant employees in the lower, lower middle, upper middle and upper quartile pay bands.

The Company has calculated the quartiles using the 4 step method outlined at Regulation 13 of the Regulations and has then expressed the percentage of male and female full-pay relevant employees in each of the quartiles.

Band	Male	Female
A	38.35 %	61.65 %
B	26.32 %	73.68 %
C	33.58 %	66.42 %
D	38.81 %	61.19 %

3. Narrative

The Brothers of Charity Services are committed to promoting the values of equality and diversity across the range of our activity including our dealings with outside organizations, contractors and suppliers

We strive to ensure that our practice in employment and the services we provide do not treat people less favourably with regard to race, colour, ethnic origin, nationality, national origin, religion or belief, sex, gender reassignment, sexual orientation, marital status, pregnancy or maternity, age or disability.

The Service is an equal opportunity employer and is fully committed to a policy of treating all its employees and job applicants equally. This Policy embodies the EU Employment Directives 2003, Equal Pay Act 1970, Human Rights Act 1998 and the Equality Act 2010.

All terms of employment, benefits, facilities and service will be reviewed on an annual basis to ensure that there is no unlawful discrimination on the grounds of race, colour, ethnic origin, nationality, national origin, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, pregnancy or maternity, age or disability.

The Service is committed to equal pay in employment. It believes its male and female employees should receive equal pay for like work, work rated as equivalent or work of equal value. In order to achieve this, the Service will endeavour to maintain a pay system that is transparent, free from bias and based on objective criteria.

4. Action Plan

As outlined within our Equal Opportunities and Dignity at Work Policy, as an organisation, we are absolutely committed to equality across our workforce and believe that monitoring our gender pay information is central to ensuring everyone is fairly remunerated and enjoy the same opportunities. Increasing transparency around the Company's gender pay data will enable the Company to monitor and scrutinise its policies and ensure that it puts in place effective strategies to confront gender pay with a view to ultimately eliminating any gender pay gap from our organisation.

Summary of Gender Pay Data:

• The mean gender pay gap	-	2.68 %
• The median gender pay gap	-	3.70 %
• The mean gender bonus gap	-	56.94 %
• The median gender bonus gap	-	22.25 %
• The proportion of male employees receiving a bonus	-	2.73 %
• The proportion of female employees receiving a bonus	-	4.27 %

As an organisation, we have devised an action plan outlining the steps we intend to take over the next 12 months with a view to reducing our gender pay gap.

As such all terms of employment, benefits, facilities and service will be reviewed on an annual basis to ensure that there is no unlawful discrimination on the grounds of race, colour, ethnic origin, nationality, national origin, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, pregnancy or maternity, age or disability in relation to the following Gender Pay Gap Reporting Metrics:

- The mean gender pay gap
- The median gender pay gap
- The mean gender bonus gap
- The median gender bonus gap
- The proportion of male employees receiving a bonus
- The proportion of female employees receiving a bonus
